SURVEY LAUNCH - LEGAL ACTION ON PENSION ISSUES

The DPF has today launched its survey, inviting eligible members to register and be included in an action to establish their pension age, at that which it was on entrance into the Force, and if possible, to return officers to their original pension scheme.

Members must be registered on the DPF website to access the link below which will direct members to the Pensions article, including the questionnaire.

For those of you who are registered, you are asked to ensure that the details you have saved, are correct. Please note, when you alter details with the Force or Department, the DPF are not informed.

If you want us to pursue a discrimination claim on your behalf you must let us know. Discrimination claims are dealt with by the Employment Tribunal, and must be made in the name of each individual officer who wants to make a claim.

If you are not registered on the DPF website, please visit www.dpf.org.uk to register via the home page, clicking 'Current Members Registration' to begin the process.

Should you have any questions or require any assistance in registering with the website please call DPF HQ on 0207 218 9817 / 0207 218 4368.
