Obituary

Peter Lambourn

We are sad to announce the death of retired member Peter Lambourn aged 70 years. Peter had been ill for a short time and passed away on Monday 29th January 2018.

Peter joined the Force (Air Force Departmental Constabulary) at Farnborough in May 1970 and later went on to serve in London, where for many years he was a police motorcyclist.

During his time with the Force Peter was an active member of the DPF, serving on Southern Regional Committee for many years, then as a Conference delegate and later elected to the Management Committee. Peter also acted as a Federation Friend always ready to assist colleagues in time of need.

Peter retired in October 2004 and thereafter he and his wife Kath moved to Devon.

Peter's funeral service will be on Monday 19th February at 11am at Barnstaple Crematorium, North Devon.

Family flowers only.
